[*Modern androgynous: these days, some of the church ladies are men]

In Jon Hassler's 1940s-era GRAND OPENING, conflict between Catholics and Lutherans is alive & well. As part of River Falls Reads, eight local churches have agreed to participate in a good-natured rivalry: which church has the best cooks? Come taste-test their entries in both the Hotdish/Entrée category and the Jello category.

Following the Cook-Off, Janet Martin, author & humorist, will regale us with "Hot Dishes, Hot Pads & Hot Flashes," after which the Cook-Off winners will be announced. Ticket proceeds and goodwill donations will be donated to the River Falls Food Pantry in the name of the winning church.
